

Geography really matters to me because...

Geography really matters to me because...

Geography really matters!

A word cloud of geography-related terms. The words are arranged in a roughly rectangular shape, with some words oriented vertically. The colors of the words include shades of blue, green, purple, and brown. The words are: people, migration, volcanoes, hurricanes, decision making, informed citizens, environmental responsibility, mitigation, critical thinking, landscape, sustainability, connections, policies, hazards, towns, energy, food, health, identity, future, population, local security, spaces, flooding, conflict, water, villages, global places, urban, rural, patterns, climate change.

Geography really matters!

A word cloud of geography-related terms, identical to the one above. The words are arranged in a roughly rectangular shape, with some words oriented vertically. The colors of the words include shades of blue, green, purple, and brown. The words are: people, migration, volcanoes, hurricanes, decision making, informed citizens, environmental responsibility, mitigation, critical thinking, landscape, sustainability, connections, policies, hazards, towns, energy, food, health, identity, future, population, local security, spaces, flooding, conflict, water, villages, global places, urban, rural, patterns, climate change.