

BRIGHTON AND DISTRICT GEOGRAPHICAL ASSOCIATION

69th Lecture Programme 2023 - 24

President: Professor Rebecca Elmhirst, University of Brighton

Chair: John Whilde

All lectures except for January will be held at the Moulsecoomb Campus of the University of Brighton.

Tuesday 17th October 2023 at 5.30pm [Moulsecoomb campus, University of Brighton]

“Resilience and sustainable development in rural West Africa”

Professor Tony Binns, Emeritus Professor of Geography, Sussex and Otago (NZ) Universities
The Roy Metcalfe Inaugural Lecture

Tuesday 21st November 2023 at 5.30pm [Moulsecoomb campus, University of Brighton]

“Community and policy responses to forced migration - implications for research and teaching”

Professor Michael Collyer, University of Sussex

Tuesday 5th December 2023 at 5.30pm [Moulsecoomb campus, University of Brighton]

“Understanding climate change and our influence on the planet”

Dr Melissa Lazenby, University of Sussex

Tuesday 23rd January 2024 at 5.30pm [Haywards Heath College]

“The Invisible Killer - Air pollution - past, present and future”

Dr Gary Fuller, Imperial College

Tuesday 27th February 2024 at 5.30pm [Moulsecoomb campus, University of Brighton]

“If climate change is the question, could wood be an answer?”

Mike Jeffree, Editor, Timber Trade Journal

Tuesday 12th March 2024 at 5.30pm [Falmer campus, University of Brighton]

“From raising the global sea level to threatening billions with water shortages – here’s why you should care about ice sheets and glaciers”

Dr Lorna Linch, University of Brighton

Other events

Thursday 21st March 2024

World Wise Quiz

Varndean College, Surrenden Road, Brighton, BN1 6WQ

Thursday 2nd May 2024 at 6.00pm, location to be confirmed

AGM of the Brighton and District Branch followed by an illustrated talk

Thursday 20th June 2024

Local Evening Field Excursion

Details to follow